"A Fool and His Money," a Selznick picture, adapted from George Barr McCutcheon's story of the same name, will be shown at the Bijou Theater tomorrow, Tuesday and Wednesday, with Eugene O'Brien appearing in the leading role. Appearing as a typical McCutcheon hero, Mr. O'Brien portrays a role differing from any of his previous characters. "Hungry Lions and Tender Hearts," a comedy and a Selznick News are added. Pauline Frederick, who appears in the Goldwyn picture, "The Woman in Room Thirteen," which comes to the Bijou Theater for three days commencing Thursday is having her knees moved West, as she has some highly prized and pedicured English feet which she wants to show to her new California ranch. Miss Frederick's dream is to have a lot of animals, a California ranch, and to travel around a few automobiles and many days to live in California. "The Woman in Room Thirteen" is a dramatic story with a burning murder mystery cleverly interwoven.

Farnum at the Bluebird.
William Farnum, who has been in a delightful role at the Bluebird Theater four days starting Monday, when William Fox will present the famous star in "The Adventurer" by E. Lloyd Sheldon. The popular artist will be seen in a character which is admirably suited to him. He is a happy duelling adventurer, and his wonderful swordsmanship is one of the features of this strongly dramatic story. A fine cast has been selected to support him in this extraordinary production.

Antonia Moreno will be seen in the last chapter of "The Invisible Man," Friday and Saturday, also Francis Farnum, who will show his latest Western drama, "Up and Climbing." A special Rainbow comedy, "He Loved Like He Lived," will furnish the comedy part of the program, with all the latest news by International news.

The Idol Dancer Comes Back.

Miss Kowalowsky will continue to demonstrate on this occasion the origin of the famous dance which has caused such a sensation in the theatre. The usual high class supplementary treat with the Broadway Orchestra completes another bill for the week at the Broadway.

Ford With Ethel Clayton.
So many favorable comments were received throughout the country on the Ethel Clayton picture, "Young Mrs. Winthrop," in which Harrison Ford appeared to excellent advantage as leading man, that this talented actor was chosen to support the star in her latest photoplay, "A Lady in Love," which will occupy the screen at the Colonial Theater tomorrow, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Another famous stage farce serves as a vehicle for Bryant Washburn in "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" which will be shown at the Colonial Theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The general star is said to have been af-

Tuesday, Wednesday only, Marie Doro will be shown in "Twelve Ten," to be followed Thursday by Ruth Clifford in "The Amazing Woman." Friday and Saturday, Anita Stewart will be seen in her recent phenomenal First National success, "The Mind the Paint Girl," a production which won for her many new friends and commendation of all critics.

Wonderful Storm Scenes.
There are some wonderful storm scenes in "Shark Monroe," the latest Artcraft picture, starring "Big Bill" Hart, which will be shown at the Victor tomorrow and Tuesday. Hart plays the part of "Shark Monroe," a madman of the sea, and during a wonderfully realistic storm scene, "Shark" works his way out to the bowsprit and rescues a man who is caught there. Huge waves pass over them, but "Shark" clings on like grim death and finally brings the unconscious man back to safety. Juanita Hansen in "The Lost City," is the extra attraction. Douglas Fairbanks in "He Comes Up Smiling," one of his jolliest screen hits, will be the Victor main feature Wednesday and Thursday, and Harold Lloyd in "The Haunted Spooks" will be the comedy supplement. Jack Dempsey in "A Terrible Vengeance," and "The Faker," a new and complete William J. Flynn detective story, make up the double bill Friday and Saturday.
